

How security shapes the way you design your cloud migration and modernisation strategy

An Open Customer Forum

Terms and Conditions

I acknowledge and agree to the following conditions of access/entry to the event:

- My invitation to the event is personal and not transferable.
- Telstra reserves the right to refuse and revoke access to any person, for any reason.
- Telstra may contact me via SMS or any other electronic means to provide updates and key information about the event and related products and services.
- Where permitted, or otherwise with my explicit consent, Telstra may provide my information to exhibitors and event sponsors (who may be third parties external to Telstra) who may then contact me (by email or telephone) to market their products and services.
- Telstra may use any information and data it collects through the registration process and my participation at the event and for on-demand content on the website (including through technology used at the event to track my activity and location) for marketing purposes, may share this with third parties Telstra uses to assist with producing and sponsoring the event, and may otherwise use this information in accordance with Telstra's privacy statement set out at <https://www.telstra.com.au/privacy>.
- Where elements of the event are delivered in a hybrid or online-only format, Telstra will provide registered attendees with personalised credentials. As an attendee's credentials and access link are for individual use, sharing of this information is not permitted. Attendees are responsible for maintaining the security of this information.
- This is private and invitation-only event and I acknowledge that the copying or further distribution of material shared at or in relation to the event is strictly prohibited without the express permission of Telstra. Unless instructed otherwise during the event, attendees are welcome to take photographs promoting their attendance to the event for the purpose of sharing that content on their personal social media profiles.
- Where elements of the event are delivered in an in-person format, Telstra may capture and use imagery and audio-visual content from the event. I consent to being filmed, recorded (by sound, video, image, or otherwise), and photographed as an attendee of the event, and the consent to its use by Telstra anywhere in the world for promotional and any other purposes.
- My interactions during the event, including my input, questions, polling submissions, and ratings will be owned by Telstra, and I accept that content including my interactions may be used anywhere in the world for promotional and any other purposes.

- Telstra does not take responsibility for any goods, services, and other benefits I may receive in relation to the event. I acknowledge it is my responsibility to comply with my organisation's gift and reward policies and will seek further advice from my organisation if necessary.
- Telstra is not responsible for the content and information from any external links provided by exhibitors and sponsors.
- When registering for the webinar, the registrants will receive a gift to their provided address and this information will be shared with a third-party solely for the purpose of delivering the gift to them. To be eligible, a valid Australian address must be provided and the registrant must attend the webinar. Employees of Telstra, Microsoft, and Omdia are not eligible.
- Only one entry per person will be accepted. Entries are accepted at the time of receipt by Telstra. Incomplete, indecipherable, or illegible entries will be deemed invalid. We may also disqualify entries that do not comply with these Terms and Conditions.
- I am attending the event at my own risk. Telstra is not responsible for any harm or loss unless caused by the willful act or negligence of Telstra's staff, agents, or subcontractors.